

Lay Catholics

Dream and reality

Celebrating 60th anniversary of PAX ROMANA and lay participation in the Church

Australian Catholic Movement for Intellectual and Cultural Affairs (ACMICA) invites past and present members and friends of the Catholic graduate movement, the Newman Society, UCFA, TCFA and IMCSA to a special celebration marking 60 years of Pax Romana-ICMICA.

Guest speaker:

Kimberley Davis

Office for the Participation of Women (OPW)

15 September

Program:

6pm Mass at Newtown parish Church

7pm Talk in the Church

Guest speaker: Kimberley Davis, Director of the Office for the Participation of Women (OPW) of the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference
Topic: "Lay Catholics - the Reality and the Dream"

Response: Former Pax Romana-ICMICA President Bill Neville reflects on the meaning of ICMICA's 60 years

8pm Dinner at Newtown Presbytery, 109 Lennox St Newtown (across from the Church)

All welcome (to all or any of the program)

Talk FREE

Dinner: $35 or $10 (concession)

(Money raised will go towards the graduate movements ACMICA and Pax Romana)

RSVP: essential if attending dinner by 13 September

Ph: 02 9557 3197 / Email info@acmica.org

..... ACMICA.org